Re: FNCFCSC et al. v. Attorney General of Canada (Tribunal File T1340/7008)

We write further to Ms. Dubois emails on January 22, 2025, inviting written submissions on the motion filed by the First Nation Child and Caring Society on January 14, 2025.

In respect of the relief sought by the Caring Society at para. 1 with regard to "An Order directing consultation between Canada, the Assembly of First Nations (the "AFN") and the Caring Society on the national long-term reform of the FNCFS Program, First Nations Federal child and family services and Jordan's Principle in line with the Tribunal's Order of February 1, 2018 (2018 CHRT 4) and its related consultation orders," NAN takes no position on the schedule or other aspects of process but reserves the right to participate in the motion.

We write only with regard to the relief set out at paragraph 1, as it is our understanding that the Caring Society is no longer seeking an order for the relief set out in paragraph 2 of the motion.

If there are any questions, we would be happy to provide clarification.

Yours very truly,

Meaghan Daniel
